Why salary packaging makes sense for employees like you

---

1

You can take home more pay

You receive some of your salary tax free, so you pay less tax and take home more pay.

It uses expenses you already pay

Mortgage, rent, car and credit card expenses are just some of the things you can use to minimise your tax.

3

Most of your colleagues are doing it

Over 60% of Australian health, charity and PBI employees are salary packaging. It's a common remuneration practice endorsed by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

4

Set and forget

Once salary packaging is set up most employees don't have to provide further claims or receipts.

5

Fast and easy to do

In most cases salary packaging can be ready within a few days —just in time for your next pay cycle.

What expenses can you claim and use to minimise your tax?

As an eligible employee you can claim thousands in general living expenses like car, mortgage, rent and credit card payments. Plus another $2,650 in meal entertainment expenses including restaurant meals, venue hire and holiday accommodation. Over $10,000 in salary can be paid to you tax-free every year.

Additionally you may be able to claim remote area benefits—including mortgage, rent and utility costs— if you live and work in a remote area. Or claim exempt items like relocation costs, living away from home expenses, self education, professional memberships and portable electronic devices.
